DAVE & BUSTER'S DISCUSSES RECENT GOVERNANCE AND BUSINESS
INITIATIVES IN LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

DALLAS, March 17, 2003 - Dave & Buster's, Inc. (NYSE: DAB) today issued the following letter to its shareholders:

Dear Dave & Buster's Shareholder:

We would like to update you on a number of recent governance and business initiatives undertaken by your Board and management to enhance stewardship of your investment and build value for the future.

First, as you know, public companies are subject to new laws regarding corporate governance, including composition of the Board and Board committees. With this in mind, last year we proactively undertook a thorough review of our governance practices and procedures with the goal of not only meeting the requirements of the new laws, but also enhancing our overall corporate governance policies. We made this issue a top priority, and set it as an agenda item for our regularly scheduled Board meeting on March 4, 2003. Our objective is to institute Board changes in an orderly and constructive way.

As the initial outcome of that review process, at the March 4 Board meeting we approved several important items. First, we formed a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which is comprised solely of independent directors and is chaired by Peter Edison. Among the first responsibilities of this new Committee will be to recruit new independent directors to join our Board. This committee will also review and implement policies and procedures to assure the Company's compliance with the new corporate governance requirements. Second, the Board appointed an independent Lead Director to head executive sessions of the Board and also serve as the primary liaison between management and the Board. Mark Levy will serve in that role. These changes represent the first steps in a concerted effort to enhance and strengthen Dave & Buster's governance practices.

At the same time, the Company's management is implementing strategies to examine and streamline all aspects of Dave & Buster's operations. Management is moving forward with a highly focused program of targeted marketing, disciplined cost oversight, and careful cash management. Improving how the Company executes is paramount, and management is intensely focused on efforts to improve profitability and efficiency.

The Company is also re-directing marketing efforts to emphasize local store public relations and marketing, targeting our core business - the local, repeat business - while attracting new patrons to our stores. We are focusing on labor and product costs and we are updating our amusement offerings, the heart of our distinctive entertainment platform, by replacing older venues with new and exciting models. In addition, throughout 2003 we will be introducing a whole range of new and exciting programs intended to increase sales, including new games, special value promotions, and enhanced marketing efforts. This is being combined with a rigorous business plan well underway to control costs and invest prudently in improving existing operations.

The Board and management believe that the Company can enhance value for shareholders by focusing on the principles that have led to our 20 years of success: offering guests great food and entertainment in a unique setting. While the economic environment continues to be quite challenging, we believe that our experience, resources, and outstanding teams of employees will allow us to manage through this difficult economy, implement our strategies to enhance our performance and emerge a stronger and more exciting enterprise, well positioned for the future.

In the coming weeks and months you will be hearing more from us about our plans on governance and other business matters. In the meantime, together with management and on behalf of the entire Board of Directors, we want you to know that, as always, we are focused on the future of Dave & Buster's and building value for our shareholders.

Sincerely,

Mark Levy
Lead Director

Peter Edison
Chair, Nominating and Governance Committee
